This is more than a conference – it's an opportunity to learn from one another, work through shared challenges, and help shape the future priorities and resources of our restoration community.

Building on the vision, values, and indicators co-created by the Community of Practice over the past two years, this year's workshop will focus on turning ideas into action through knowledge sharing, collaboration, and solutions to key restoration challenges.

What can you expect?

- Learn from restoration in action: Hear project stories and explore lessons learned from coastal, estuary, riverscape, and ungulate restoration initiatives across Northern BC.
- Work through real challenges: Participate in our popular small-group coaching sessions and collaborative discussions to exchange ideas and share solutions informed by your peers.
- Build practical tools and connections: Participate in mini trainings, contribute to guidance products, and help shape priorities for the Community of Practice.

Want to learn more about the workshop?

Check out the attached Participant Agenda to explore sessions and activities.

Where: Terrace Sportsplex Banquet Room
33020 Kalum Street, Terrace, BC.

When: October 21-22, 2026

- Optional pre-workshop social: October 20
- Optional post-workshop field tour: October 23

You don't want to miss this!

Can't make it to Terrace? Register today to participate virtually! Virtual participation is available; however, we encourage in-person attendance to make the most of the networking, coaching, and collaborative working sessions.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided for in-person attendees.

Come ready to share, learn, and turn ideas into action! We can't wait to see you there!

There are lots of ways to get more involved with the CoP, facilitated by the organizing team:

- organize or join a subject matter working group
- organize or join a regional group - each of our three northern 'regions' has a group
- join the Organizing Team, either as an individual or on behalf of your organization
- share knowledge in a webinar, conference presentation, or hands-on workshop.

Just reach out, we'd love to hear from you!
